

Updates: When you have chosen a walk then check the below list if there are any changes.

Because of the damage from the snow in January 2017 there are many fallen trees on the footpaths.

p.12, 2.paragraph, 4.line: No fishing boats for Patitiri anymore.

p.21, last paragraph: The path down to the donkey path is closed; follow the same way back or the asphalt road.

p.26, 4.paragraph, 1. and 2. line: The earth road has become an asphalt road.

p.28, 3.paragraph, last line: You have to follow the road to Mikros Mourtias because the path down to the coast path is closed. When you reach the beach you take the path up to the right facing the sea. Its steep and overgrown to start with but soon it opens. Follow it all the way to the lighthouse at Kokkino. The path is marked where it's necessary. Be aware of sudden drops from the cliff towards the sea. It's a beautiful walk but off the beaten track. Skip paragraph 4-9. See p.30, last paragraph for instructions to return to Palia Alonnisos.

p.34, 4.paragraph, 1 and 2.line and p.36, 5.paragraph, 2. and 4.line: The earth road has become an asphalt road.

p.40, last paragraph, 4.line and p.41, 4.paragraph, 4.line: There is no tavern on the square.

p.42, 1.paragraph, 2-4.line: There is no earth road in the olive grove, just follow the wall to the other side. The small path in the wood is overgrown so you walk down to the right along the pines still in the olive grove. After about 30 metres you go to the left through the pines and come out on the small earth road. Remember this on your way back (paragraph 3).

p.47, 3.paragraph, 4.line: There is no sign for 'Argo'. You just take the first stairs up you meet (hotel Liadromia).

4.paragraph, 3.line: There is no tavern on the square.

p.48, 3.paragraph, last line: There is no sign for 'Argo'. You just take the first stairs up you meet (hotel Liadromia).

4.paragraph, 3.line: There is no tavern on the square.

p.50, 4.paragraph, 7.line: The earth road is an asphalt road and you just keep to it all the way to hotel Nereides.

p.52, 4.paragraph, 3. and 4.line: The earth road is an asphalt road.

p.57, skip the 4.paragraph.

p.58, 4.paragraph, 3. and 4.line: The earth road is an asphalt road.

p.61, 4.paragraph, last line: The earth road is covered with concrete the first part up the hill.

p.62, 3.paragraph, 4.line: There is no tavern on the square.

p.64, 1.paragraph, 3.line: Just follow the earth road until it ends at a house. From here follow the path the last bit down to the sea.

Last paragraph, 4.line: Get around the fallen tree that blocks the road. Further on the earth road has been extended and you have to look out for the path on the left (straight ahead) about 150 metres after the asphalt road.

p.65, 1. and 2. Paragraph all: When you have passed the olive grove (with many pines) you walk up into the forest. When you come up the hill you follow the path to the left to get up on an asphalt road (not an earth road). Don't turn left here but follow the asphalt road upward. After about 200 metres just before two huge cypresses to the right you turn left down a little road that goes into the pine wood. Follow this road that soon becomes a path. From here you will find red dots to follow. Just stay up on the plateau until the path takes you down the hill and out on an earth road.

p.67: Tour 2 is closed so paragraph 3 and 4 goes out.

5.paragraph, 4 and 5.line: You walk along the hill for about 200 metres and then turn right at the T-junction. To the left is Votsi.

Last paragraph, 1.line: You reach a small earth road and here you turn left. There's a house in the olive grove to the right.

p.68 and 69: It's difficult to find your way up the hill so Tour 3 is closed.

p.70, Palia Alonnisos-Mega Nero: 2.paragraph, 5.line: The earth road is asphalt. 2. paragraph, last line: The earth road is covered with concrete the first bit up.

p.71, 3.paragraph, 2.line: There is no sign for Mega Nero. 4.paragraph, 1. and 2.line: You reach a small road which you follow. At the entrance to an olive grove and a house you turn right down the path.

p.72, 4.paragraph, 2.line: The earth road straight ahead is covered with asphalt now.

p.75, 3.paragraph, last line: You turn right along the first earth road you meet.

p.76, 2.paragraph, 3.line and beginning of last paragraph: The path through the wood is blocked by fallen trees; just continue along the earth road all the way until you reach the asphalt road (about 1km). Turn right.

p.78, 4.paragraph, 1.line: You reach the small road which you follow to the left (olive grove with a house to the right).

last paragraph, 1. and 3.line: The earth road is asphalt.

p.79, last.paragraph: Get around the fallen tree that blocks the road. Further on the earth road has been extended and you have to look out for the path on the left (straight ahead) about 150 metres after the asphalt road. When you have passed the olive grove (with many pines) you walk up into the forest. When you come up the hill you follow the path to the left to get up on an asphalt road (not an earth road).

p.81, 1.paragraph, 3.line: Ignore 3 roads to the left; they lead to houses. Last paragraph, 3.line: Many fallen trees here; you can pass them but its not so easy! Further on down through the ravine it gets clearer.

p.82, 1.paragraph, 3.line: There is no fence. 2.paragraph, 1.line: The start of the path is a stair down into an olive grove. Continue straight down and after about 30 metres turn left and pass below the house; follow the red dots.

p.83, 3.paragraph, 7.line and the rest of the page: New route back: You continue along this road all the way (about 1km) until it ends on an asphalt road. Turn right. From here it's the same way back as on the way out. Don't miss the path that starts in the big bend after 5-10 min. Follow the path down as on the way out. When you reach the asphalt road you turn right and follow it all the way to Mega Nero. Follow the directions on page 84 for Patitiri or Palia Alonnisos.

p.84, 2.paragraph, 1.line: You reach the small road which you follow to the left (olive grove with a house to the right).

p.87, 1.paragraph, skip the first four lines: Get around the fallen tree that blocks the road. Further on the earth road has been extended and you have to look out for the path on the left (straight ahead) about 150 metres after the asphalt road. When you have passed the olive grove (with many pines) you walk up into the forest. When you come up the hill you follow the path to the left to get up on an asphalt road. 3.paragraph, skip the first five lines: The path is overgrown and you try to follow the red dots on the stones to get into the streambed. Again follow the dots out of it and then the dots along the streambed (on the right). You cross the streambed again and then you come up on the 'old path'.

p.90, Last.paragraph: Follow the directions p.87, 1.paragraph just above.

p.91, 1.and 2.paragraph: Follow the earth road to the left (the path is closed) until you meet a spring (about 1km). From here you continue straight ahead along the earth road until it ends and then you pass through the green door (not the gate). Follow the path and look out for the red dots on the stones. Open a fence if necessary to continue along the path. Last paragraph, 4.line: You pass below a house and further on you turn right to reach some stairs that take you up on a big earth road; turn to the left.

p.94: Leftos Yialos tour is closed because of all the fallen trees.

p.100,: Tour 2 is closed. The ravine Vathi to Rema is destroyed by all the fallen trees .

p.102, The second last paragraph, last line: The earth road is asphalt. Last paragraph, 1 and 2.line: You just follow the asphalt road that later on becomes an earth road. After a descent towards the coast you keep to the right every time the road splits.

p.106, last paragraph, 4.line: Stay in the riverbed and where it turns sharply to the right; you can claim up on the left riverbank and follow a path until you reach Kastania (about 300 metres).

p.107, 1.paragraph, 1 and 2.line: The scenery has changed at Kastania. A technical lake has been constructed and you have to follow the steep hill up where the gorge ends. It takes you up on a road close to the lake. Go straight ahead and soon you turn left up a path.
